

JAMESTOWN PILGRIMAGE

John Temple Graves Will Make Leading Speech at the Banquet.

WILL NOT SELL WAR GOODS

A Quaker Firm in Philadelphia Declines to Fill Large Order of Goods for Navy.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, Va., March 16.—Assistant General Manager D. J. Callahan of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, accompanied by the local officials of the Jamestown Exposition, will go to Washington to-morrow to take personal charge of the congressional pilgrimage to Jamestown Island. Harry Waterson and Mayor McClellan, of New York, are expected. John Temple Graves, of Georgia, will make the principal address at the banquet.

A Norfolk firm to-day received from a Philadelphia firm a letter declining a large order of goods designed for the use of the navy. "We are opposed to war," the Quaker merchants wrote, along with Scriptural quotations.

A marriage license was to-day granted to Hugh Samuels, a retired contractor, of Chicago, to wed Mrs. Esther M. Wiggins, of Pontiac, Ill. The prospective groom is sixty-five years old and the bride's age is fifty-two.

PLAGUE SPOTS.
The W. C. T. U. has called upon Mayor Liddick to clean out Wolf Street and other plague spots of the city. Strong resolutions were adopted at the monthly meeting of the Norfolk Union to-day, calling upon the mayor to clean out the place.

There may be two horse shows in Norfolk this year. The Norfolk Horse Show Association official said to-day that his company's plans were too far advanced to be abandoned despite the decision of the Virginia Horse Show Association in favor of the opposition association here.

LOOK FOR RUMPU.
Local politicians look for another hot political episode in Norfolk in the next few weeks. The old ring is seeking to regain power and the administration has undoubtedly been weakened by the revelations made during the primary contest.

The labor movement in this regard has excited the greatest interest. Some people believe heartily to be behind it, but the leaders declare that it is only what it is represented to be; a movement to intrude the labor element in every ward in the city.

In the Police Court here to-day J. N. Miller, aged and decrepit, the wreck of a former magnificent physique, was sent to jail for six months for robbing the rooms of lodgers at the Young Men's Christian Association building. He was convicted of stealing clothing and jewelry. He claims to have come here from Baltimore and says he lost everything he had in the great fire.

MUST NOT LITTER THE STREETS.
Warrants are out for H. T. Hoy, of Richmond, charged with littering the streets of Norfolk with circulars, and for an excursion over the Norfolk and Western Railway. A city ordinance prohibits the distribution of this class of literature, and as the railway people denied responsibility, the promoter of the excursion was warranted.

The fisheries board was to have held a meeting here to-day, but the only member to show up was Dr. J. W. Bowdoin, the chairman. He was unable to find the other members.

Another anti-Chinese crusade has been inaugurated here by the national anti-Chinese league. The league is here to-day making a thorough search for unregistered Chinese. It is expected that there will be more wholesale deportation of those Celestials who are unable to procure their certificates. Many of them have been deported.

TIDEWATER ROAD.

Taking Up Options in West Virginia and Paying for Them.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BLUEFIELD, W. Va., March 16.—That the Washburn Deepwater, Tidewater or whatever railway it may be that has engineers at work surveying a route from Widemouth to Calverton means business is evidenced by the fact that options secured some time ago are being taken up all along the route, and bond side payments being made on the property.

The residents of Ingleside were much elated Saturday by the appearance in that town of about twenty engineers, who stated that they had been employed by the Deepwater Company to make plans of the most feasible route for a canal from Widemouth to Calverton. The proposed road will probably follow the course of East River from Oakvale to Ingleside, and leaving the river there will run from Ingleside to Widemouth by way of Princeton, either passing directly through or running within less than a mile of the county line.

STURDY BACHELOR HAS TO SURRENDER

Winchester's City Treasurer Weds Miss Mary Hicks Smith, a Charming Lady.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, Va., March 16.—The marriage at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon of Miss Mary Hicks Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Smith, to Mr. George H. Kinzel, the popular city treasurer of Winchester, was quite an event in the local social realm, despite the fact that only the families and immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, No. 130 Peyton Street. Rev. Julian S. Shibley, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, officiated, assisted by Rev. Charles D. Bulla, pastor of Broad Street Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

The parlor was prettily decorated with potted plants, evergreens and ferns, with violets interspersed in a plain manner, and the couple stood before a floral arch while the words were pronounced which made them man and wife.

The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine, trimmed in old lace, and carried white bride roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Lucy Allen, of Woodstock, Va.; Miss Ethel Williamson, of Washington, D. C.; and Miss Nannie Smith, sister of the bride, wore white voile, and carried La France roses. The groomsmen were Mr. Theodore Y. Kinzel, brother of the groom; Mr. S. J. Williamson, of Lexington, Va.; and Mr. Charles D. Smith, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Kinzel and the bridal party were tendered a reception, and the happy couple left on the evening train for their bridal tour. Upon returning, about April 1st, they will be at home at "Glen Lee," the handsome country home of Mr. Kinzel, on Fairmont Avenue.

The bride wore a handsome gown of dark blue broadcloth, with hat and gloves to match. She was the recipient of many handsome and costly presents.

The announcement of the approaching wedding, which was made in The Times-Dispatch and the local papers on February 16th, caused a mild surprise in Winchester's social circles. The groom had become known upon a confirmed bachelor, but he succumbed to the irresistible charms of his beautiful bride, who is a splendid type of the charming Virginia girl. She is one of this city's most strikingly handsome girls in personal appearance and is as attractive in disposition as she is pretty and winsome in person. She is a popular girl in the large circle of acquaintances and is the granddaughter of the late Daniel J. Miller, of Middletown, who was one of the county's best men in his day. On her grandmother's side, she is a grand-niece of Samuel Hicks, who was mayor of Baltimore for two terms. Her father, William H. Smith, is a member of the firm of W. B. Baker's Sons, flour manufacturers.

Mr. Kinzel is one of the best known men of the younger generation in this section. For years he was captain of the Charley Route Fire Company, and is one of the leading Democrats of this city, having held the office of city treasurer for several terms, and could continue in that position if the tenure of the office was not limited by the new Constitution. He is a member of the Elks club, Pythian, Odd-Fellows, Red Men and Elks fraternities, and is a personal friend of Governor Montague, Lieutenant Governor Willard, Senator Martin, Representative Hay and other leading men in the Democratic party. He is exceedingly popular and probably is one of the best acquainted men in the Valley.

To test the efficiency of the Petersburg bank officials, the secret service agent this afternoon walked into a bank and requested change for a $10 note.
